

As part of the observances to mark the 25th death anniversary of our founder, Dr Cheddi Jagan, the PPP hosted a wreath laying ceremony at Babu John, Corentyne today. Executive Secretary of the party Zulfikar Mustapha delivered brief remarks during which he underscored that the lessons taught from the late President have made significant contributions towards the democracy that the country recently retained.

