

Freedom Fight

9. 2. 97

From Guyana to South Africa,
Bhedi B. Gagan and Nelson Mandela.
What do these men have in common?
Stamina, courage and determination.

They have succeeded in the struggle,
To free the people.

Others should go on when the road gets rough,

And things get tough.

These men never gave up,
They fought their way to the top.
Even when things went wrong,
They were determined to be strong,

Today nations are free,
Because men struggled unselfishly.
That is how it should be,
People should live in love and unity.
