

Dear Dad

Now that war has broken out, I don't think I should remain in school, but should enter nursing immediately. I can always get my degree later.

I think that Cook County will be taking in girls this month. Please call up and find out the possibility of entering now. They have my records there. You can give me the information when I see you Wed.

Love, Janet

Copyright © Nadira Jagan-Brancier 2009

Dear Dad,

Now that war has broken out, I don't think I should remain in school, but should enter nursing immediately. I can always get my degree later.

I think that Cook County will be taking in girls this month. Please call up and find out the possibility of entering now. They have my records there. You can give me the information when I see you on Wed.

Love, Janet