

To celebrate 100th Birthday of Lenin, USSR

Presented to Dr. Cheddi Jagan & Janet Jagan in 1970

Awarded to all persons in state service on the occasion of Lenin's 100th Birthday, April 1970. (There are three different versions of this medal: a military version, a civilian version and a "for non-Soviet citizens" version.) These medals were awarded to 5000 members of foreign delegations.

Cheddi Jagan

Janet Jagan

Order of Friendship with the Peoples of USSR

Presented to Dr. Cheddi Jagan - March 22, 1978

The Order of Friendship of Peoples (Russian: Орден "Дружбы народов") was an order of the Soviet Union, and was awarded to persons (including non-citizens), organizations, enterprises, military units, as well as administrative subdivisions of the USSR for accomplishments in strengthening of inter-ethnic and international friendship and cooperation, for economical, political, scientific, military, and cultural development of the Soviet Union. It was established on October 17, 1972, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the creation of the Soviet Union. It was abolished in 1991.

Order of Friendship with the Peoples of USSR

Order of Friendship
with the People
USSR

CHEDDI GETS TOP SOVIET AWARD

THE Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has adopted the Decree of awarding the Order of Friendship among Peoples to the General Secretary of the People's Progressive Party, Comrade Cheddi Jagan for the "great contribution to the establishment and development of friendly relations between the peoples of Guyana and the Soviet Union" on the occasion of his 60th birthday.

This was announced Wed. night by the Soviet Ambassador to Guyana, Vladimir Kotenev, at Freedom House, Headquarters of the People's Progressive Party, during a reception to mark the 60th birthday of Comrade Cheddi Jagan.

The Decree is signed by the Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the USSR, and General Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union Comrade Leonid Illich Brezhnev, and by the Secretary of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the USSR, Comrade B. Georgadze.

The Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union sent the following message to the PPP General Secretary on the occasion of his 60th birthday:—

The Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union is forwarding cordial congratulations and fraternal regards to you on the occasion of your 60th birthday.

We know you as an untiring fighter for independence and social progress of Guyana, for the interests of the working people of your country, for friendship between the Soviet and Guyanese peoples and development of fraternal ties between our parties.

Your active participation in the struggle against imperialism, for Marxist-Leninist cohesion of the Communist Movement, your fruitful activities for many years in the peace movement have found well-deserved appreciation by the Soviet communists.

We wish you, Dear Comrade Cheddi, good health and further successes in your work for the benefit of the Guyanese people, in the name of strengthening of friendship between the peoples of Guyana and the Soviet Union."

"THE years of struggle have been very rewarding", said Comrade Cheddi Jagan now 60 years old and still going strong. In his reply Wednesday night during the celebrations to mark the occasion of his 60th birthday, when he received the prestigious and high award from the Soviet Union, messages, gifts and congratulations, Dr. Cheddi Jagan said:—

"I am very happy for the recognition that has been given to me on my 60th birthday this deeply esteemed award — this honour—I know, is accepted by us all as a contribution to the struggle our party has carried out.....and will continue to carry out. Our duty is to fight against imperialism and to build in Guyana a socialist state."