TREASURES

God sends us many treasures
For which we cannot pay,
The music of the songbirds,
Sunset at close of day.
A child's delighted laughter,
The cool refreshing rain,
The seed time and the harvest
Of life-sustaining grain.
And there's another treasure
That's just as priceless too,
He sends Dear Praying Friends
And so they're praying for you!

(By the pupils of Aurora Secondary and Primary Schools)